

MINE CORRIDOR

A railtrack runs through the corridor. Tools lay abandoned on the floor.

The corridor will always be empty, unless the adventure book states otherwise. An unexpected event will always be triggered on a roll of 1 during the power phase.

MINE S-BEND

The railtrack snakes away into the distance, tool lay abandoned.

The S-Bend will always be empty, unless the adventure book states otherwise. An unexpected event will always be triggered on a roll of 1 during the power phase.
